shall cease Such agreement shall also provide for the repayment to the said Corporation of the City of London by the said Company of the amount of the said debentures at the end of the said term of twenty years; in the event of the said Company not paying or conveying as aforesaid before the end of the said term of twenty years, under the privilege hereinbefore contained or at the option of the said Company, the said Company may then convey, assign and transfer to the Corporation of the City of London the real estate and other property purchased by the said Company with the proceeds of the said debentures, and shall also provide that the said Company shall insure at their own expense and as soon as possible, and keep insured in some reliable Insurance Company or Companies to be approved of by the Council of the Corporation of the City of London from time to time until repayment or conveyance, as aforesaid, all the buildings which the said Company may erect to as great an amount as can lawfully be obtained thereupon, and shall assign and transfer the insurance policy or policies, when issued, to the Corporation of the City of London as security for such repayment, as aforesaid. Provided, however, that in case the buildings of the said Company shall have been insured, as aforesaid, and the said buildings or any of them shall at the time of such conveyance (if any) to the Corporation of the City of London, as aforesaid, be destroyed by fire, then the said Company shall not be held liable for not conveying such of the buildings so destroyed, as aforesaid. And the said Company shall also agree to secure to the Corporation of the City of London the repayment of the amount of the said debentures and the payment of the said annual sum of $3,000, as aforesaid, upon the property, real and personal (if any), of the said Company, in such manner and by such mortgage, deed, bond, document or other writing as shall be by the City Solicitor deemed best and safest in the interests of the said Corporation of the City of London, and such agreement shall also be approved of by the City Solicitor before it is executed.

8. That no interest shall be allowed or be paid to the said Company on the said debentures until the conditions mentioned in the seventh paragraph hereof shall have been fulfilled.

9 That the foregoing sections of this By-law shall take effect on and from the fourteenth day of January next, and this and the subsequent sections thereof shall take effect immediately.

10. That the votes of the electors of the said city upon this By-law shall be taken on Monday, the third day of January next, between the hours of nine o'clock in the forenoon and five o'clock in the afternoon, and that the several polling places and Deputy-Returning Officers for taking the said votes shall be as follows:—

For the First Sub-division of the First Ward, at the City Hall, and John J. Matheson shall be the Deputy-Returning Officer therefor.

For the Second Sub-division of the First Ward, at Patrick O'Neil's store, on the corner of Richmond and Bathurst streets, and James Smith shall be the Deputy-Returning Officer therefor.

For the Third Sub-division of the First Ward, at the Horton Street School House, and John Bonser shall be the Deputy Returning Officer therefor.

For the Fourth Sub-division of the First Ward, at George Quinton's house, on Grey street, and Frederick W. Cryer shall be the Deputy Returning Officer therefor.

For the First Sub-division of the Second Ward, at James Percival's store, on Queen's
For the Second Sub-division of the Ward, at the shop of John Turner, on Rich street, and Oswald Baynes shall be the Returning Officer therefor.
For the Third Sub-division of the Ward, at the house of A. Padfield, on mond street, and Charles A. Sippi shall Deputy Returning Officer therefor
For the First Sub-division of the Third at the Colborne Street School House,
William Wilson shall be the Deputy Ret
Officer therefor.
For the Second Sub-division of the Ward, at the School House on Waterloo and John Fleming shall be the Deputy ing Officer therefor.
For the Third Sub-division of the Third at the house of Hugh Rose, on South and James Keenleyside shall be the Returning Officer therefor.
For the First Sub-division of the Ward, at the house of Christopher Tea Queen's avenue, and Alexander Gunn the Deputy Returning Officer therefor.
For the Second Sub-division of the Ward, at the Princess Avenue School and James Jury shall be the Deputy Retu
Officer therefor.
For the Third Sub-division of the Ward, at the Waterloo Street School and Henry Pratt shall be the Deputy Retu
Officer therefor.
For the First Sub-division of the Fifth
at the Park Street School House, and Jo Showler shall be the Deputy Returning therefor.
For the Second Sub-division of the Ward, at the East End Hall (late Town and Arscott Isaac shall be the Deputy R ing Officer therefor.
And for the Third Sub-division of the Ward, at the Anderson School House Thomas Van Idlestine shall be the Returning Officer therefor.
That the Clerk shall attend at the City in the said city, on Wednesday, the fifth January next, at eleven o'clock in the fore to sum up the number of votes given f against this By-law, and Thursday, the tieth day of December instant, at o'clock in the forenoon, at the said City is hereby appointed for the Mayor to persons to attend at the various polling and at the final summing up of the vo the Clerk respectively on behalf of the p interested in and promoting or oppos passage of the By-law respectively.
Passed in open Council this tenth day
cember, in the year of our Lord one tho eight hundred and eighty-six.

ALEX. S. ABBOTT, T. D. HODG
Clerk. Mayo

Take notice, that the foregoing is a true of a proposed By-law which will be take consideration by the Municipal Council Corporation of the City of London on Th
the thirteenth day of January, A. D. eight o'clock in the afternoon (being u of one month from the first publication
FREE PRESS and the London Advertiser, first publication is on the eleventh day cember, A.D. 1886), and that at the hour, places therein fixed for taking the votes electors the polls will be held.
Dated this eleventh day of December, 1886.

A. S. ABBOT

On motion, the By-law was read a first and second time.

On motion, it was decided that the names of the returning officers be inserted and the third reading of the By-law deferred.

His Worship said the School Board had decided not to allow the schools to be used for election purposes, and it was for the Council to say what was to be done.

Ald. Stringer moved that the Clerk be instructed to write to the Chairman of the School Board, asking them to reconsider their resolution, and to allow the schools to be placed at the use of the Council for the purpose of the municipal elections, the Council to bear all expenses Carried.

Ald. Hook moved, seconded by Ald. Stringer, that Ald. Hiscox and Kingston be a deputation to wait on the School Board and see if it cannot be arranged for the use of the schools for the municipal elections. Carried.

On motion, the Council adjourned.